Fanny

When she spoke of her hair color
Sparkling sherry
She sparkled
Pins curls, hair part and swept up locks
They sparkled too
Her love for the wilds of life made her sparkle
The single diamond around the giraffe like
Neck sparkled
The Mink stole around her statuesque
Shoulders made me sparkle
I remember when the days were as long as her
Legs
Her star has nearly died
I long for a little sherry in my hair
Now I lay me down to sparkle
